 - (f) the Directors may determine the basis upon which any liability including expenses shall be allocated among Investment Accounts (including conditions as to subsequent re-allocation thereof if circumstances so permit or require) and shall have power at any time and from time to time to vary such basis and charge expenses of the Company against either revenue or the capital of the Investment Accounts; and
 - (g) the Directors may in the books of the Company transfer any assets to and from Investment Accounts if, as a result of a creditor proceeding against certain of the assets of the Company or otherwise, a liability would be borne in a different manner from that in which it would have been borne under this Article, or in any similar circumstances.
27. Subject to any applicable law and except as otherwise provided in these Articles, the assets held in each Investment Account shall be applied solely in respect of Shares of the Class or Series to which such Investment Account relates and no holder of Shares of a Class or Series shall have any claim or right to any asset allocated to any other Class or Series.

DETERMINATION OF NET ASSET VALUE

28. The Net Asset Value shall be determined by the Directors or their agent as at the Valuation Point on each Valuation Day in accordance with these Articles, except when the determination of the Net Asset Value has been suspended under the provisions of these Articles.
29. The Net Asset Value of the Company will be equivalent to all the assets of the Company less all the liabilities of the Company as at the relevant Valuation Point.
30. The Net Asset Value per Share of any Class or Series is determined by dividing the value of the assets of the Company attributable to the Shares of the relevant Class or Series less all liabilities of the Company attributable to the Shares of such Class or Series by the number of such Shares as at the relevant Valuation Point, the result being rounded up or down to the nearest unit of the applicable Functional Currency as the Directors may determine.
31. Shares within the same Series, if applicable, will have the same Net Asset Value per Share.
32. The value of the assets of the Company and liabilities of the Company and the method of valuation of such assets and liabilities shall be determined by the Directors or their agent (who may, if applicable, consult with and rely on the advice of the Investment Manager).
33. Unless the Directors determine otherwise, the assets of the Company shall be deemed to include:

- (e) an appropriate provision for taxes due and future taxes to be assessed; and
- (f) all other liabilities of the Company of every kind and nature for which reserves are determined to be required by the Directors.

In the event that any amount is not payable until some future time after the relevant Valuation Day, the Directors (who may consult with and rely on the advice of the Investment Manager) shall make such allowance as is considered appropriate to reflect the true current value thereof.

- 35. The Directors shall determine which accounting principles shall apply to the calculation of the Net Asset Value. Reserves may be established for estimated or accrued expenses, liabilities or contingencies in such manner as the Directors may determine.
- 36. In the event that the Directors determine that the valuation of any Investments does not fairly represent market value, the Directors may value such Investments as they may reasonably determine.
- 37. The Directors may request that the Auditors, or such other independent third party as the Directors may from time to time determine, review the methodology of valuation adopted by the Company at such times as may, in the view of the Directors, be appropriate and the Directors may, following such review, adopt such other basis for valuation as the Auditors, or such other independent third party as the Directors may from time to time determine, may recommend. The Directors may make such modifications to the means of determining the Net Asset Value as they may from time to time consider reasonable to ensure that the methodology of valuation accords with good accounting practice.

SERIES ROLL UP

- 38. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class or Series, if Shares of any Class are issued in Series, Shares of any such issued and outstanding Series may be converted by way of compulsory redemption and reissue into Shares of any other Series of the relevant Class (after accrual or payment of such fees, if any, as the Directors may from time to time determine) at the end of such period as the Directors may determine at the prevailing Net Asset Value of each such Series of the relevant Class. No compulsory redemption of Shares pursuant to this Article shall require prior notice in writing to be given to Shareholders.

REDEMPTION, PURCHASE AND SURRENDER OF SHARES

- 39. Subject to the Companies Law, the Company may:

 - (b) Shares may only be redeemed following the expiration of any applicable Lock-Up Period (unless the Directors or their agents determine to waive, reduce and or remove such Lock-Up Period).
41. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class or Series, the Directors shall be entitled to impose such restrictions as they may determine on the number and/or the aggregate Net Asset Value of Shares of any Class or Series that may be redeemed on a particular date or during a particular period.

The Directors may determine that a Redeeming Shareholder shall not be permitted to redeem part only of his holding of Shares of any Class or Series if such redemption would result in such Redeeming Shareholder holding Shares with an aggregate Net Asset Value of less than such amount as the Directors may from time to time determine. The Directors shall not be required to redeem fewer than such minimum number of Shares of any Redeeming Shareholder calculated by reference to their Net Asset Value per Share as they may from time to time determine.
44. The Directors may levy a charge of such amount as they may from time to time determine on the redemption of Shares of any Class or Series which are redeemed within such periods of the date of issue or in such other circumstances as the Directors may from time to time determine. Such charge may be waived by the Directors or paid to the Company or to such other Person as the Directors may determine.
45. Subject to these Articles, a Redeeming Shareholder shall not be entitled to withdraw a Redemption Notice duly submitted in accordance with these Articles except with the prior consent in writing of the Directors.
46. If a determination is made to effect a suspension of the voluntary redemption of Shares pursuant to these Articles, a Redeeming Shareholder who has submitted a Redemption Notice may withdraw his Redemption Notice during the period of suspension. Any withdrawal of a Redemption Notice under the provisions of these Articles shall be made in writing and shall only be effective if actually received by the Company or its agent before termination of the period of suspension. If the Redemption Notice is not so withdrawn the redemption of the Shares shall be made at such time and in such order of priority as the Directors may determine.
47. In the event that a Redeeming Shareholder redeems any or all of his Shares on any one Redemption Day, and there is a subsequent adjustment to the Net Asset Value of the Shares redeemed by such Redeeming Shareholder on such Redemption Day, the Directors may either determine to pay an additional amount to such Redeeming Shareholder, retain such amount for the benefit of the Company or take such action as is necessary to recover the overpaid amount from such Redeeming Shareholder, as the case may be. In the event of a partial redemption of a Redeeming Shareholder's Shares, the Directors may, in addition to the foregoing, determine to adjust the number of Shares held by such Redeeming Shareholder (by way of redemption or further issuance) to take account of any subsequent adjustments to the Net Asset Value of the Shares redeemed by such Redeeming Shareholder as at the relevant Redemption Day.

48. The timing of payments to a Redeeming Shareholder of the redemption proceeds to which such Redeeming Shareholder is entitled upon a redemption of Shares pursuant to these Articles, the amounts of each such payment, the currency in which such redemption proceeds shall be paid and the extent to which amounts may be withheld therefrom (including, without limitation, any taxes, fees, expenses or other liabilities for which a Redeeming Shareholder (or the Company, as a result of any action or inaction of the Redeeming Shareholder) is liable) and the interest (if any) to be applied thereto shall be determined by the Directors from time to time.
49. Amounts payable to a Redeeming Shareholder in connection with the redemption of Shares will be paid in cash (unless the Directors determine to pay the Redemption Price (or any amount thereof) by way of delivery of assets in specie including, without limitation, interests in a special purpose vehicle holding assets of the Company or holding entitlement to the proceeds of assets held by the Company or in a liquidating vehicle structure) and normally will be posted or sent by wire transfer upon the Redeeming Shareholder's request and at his expense. In the event that any amount of the Redemption Price is paid to a Redeeming Shareholder in specie, any asset(s) delivered to the Redeeming Shareholder shall be valued by or on behalf of the Directors on such basis and as at such date as the Directors may determine.
50. The Company will redeem Shares of the relevant Class or Series in the order in which they were first purchased by the Redeeming Shareholder (that is on a "first-in first-out" basis) or as the Directors may determine otherwise.
51. The redemption, purchase or surrender of Shares under the provisions of these Articles shall be deemed to be effected at close of business on the Redemption Day in the jurisdiction in which the applicable Register is maintained (or, in the event that the Company has established any Branch Register, in the jurisdiction in which the Principal Register is maintained), or at such other time as the Directors may determine.
52. The nominal value of Shares may be redeemed out of the proceeds arising from the issue of an equal number of Shares and the premium (if any) on such Shares shall be paid from the Share Premium Account provided always that at the determination of the Directors such Shares may be redeemed out of the profits of the Company which would otherwise have been available for dividends and any premiums thereon may be paid out of the profits of the Company or, if permitted by the Companies Law, out of capital.
53. Upon the redemption of a Share being effected pursuant to these Articles, the Redeeming Shareholder shall cease to be entitled to any rights in respect thereof (excepting always the right to receive a dividend which has been declared in respect thereof prior to such redemption being effected or any redemption proceeds payable under these Articles) and accordingly his name shall be removed from the Register with respect thereto.
54. A Person who becomes aware that he is or may be considered by the Directors to be a Prohibited Person shall promptly either deliver to the Company a Redemption Notice in accordance with these Articles or transfer his Shares in accordance with these Articles to a Person who would not thereby be a Prohibited Person.

55. Upon the redemption of any Shares being effected pursuant to these Articles, the Directors shall have the power to divide in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the Company and appropriate such assets in satisfaction or part satisfaction of the Redemption Price to one or more Redeeming Shareholders on such terms as they may determine.

TREASURY SHARES

56. Shares that the Company purchases, redeems or acquires (by way of surrender or otherwise) may, at the option of the Company, be cancelled immediately or held as Treasury Shares in accordance with the Companies Law. In the event that the Directors do not specify that the relevant Shares are to be held as Treasury Shares, such Shares shall be cancelled.
57. No dividend may be declared or paid, and no other distribution (whether in cash or otherwise) of the Company's assets (including any distribution of assets to members on a winding up) may be declared or paid in respect of a Treasury Share.
58. The Company shall be entered in the Register as the holder of the Treasury Shares provided that:
- (a) the Company shall not be treated as a member for any purpose and shall not exercise any right in respect of the Treasury Shares, and any purported exercise of such a right shall be void; and
 - (b) a Treasury Share shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting of the Company and shall not be counted in determining the total number of issued shares at any given time, whether for the purposes of these Articles or the Companies Law, save that an allotment of Shares as fully paid bonus shares in respect of a Treasury Share is permitted and Shares allotted as fully paid bonus shares in respect of a treasury share shall be treated as Treasury Shares.
59. Treasury Shares may be disposed of by the Company on such terms and conditions as determined by the Directors.

CONVERSION

60. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class or Series, the Company may convert Shares of any Class or Series (the "Original Class") held by a Shareholder into a number of Shares of another Class or Series either (a) if the Directors determine that such conversion is necessary, advisable or desirable, or (b) provided that conversion is so permitted in respect of any Class or Series and subject to the rights or restrictions attaching thereto, upon the request of the holder of any Shares of such Class or Series. All conversions of Shares pursuant to these Articles from one Class or Series to any other Class or Series shall be effected by the Directors by way of compulsory redemption of Shares in one Class or Series and the issue of new Shares in the other Class or Series, in each case at such price as the Directors determine. The Directors may determine whether any accrued but unpaid fees attaching to the Shares of the Original Class shall attach to the converted Shares.

COMPULSORY REDEMPTION

61. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class or Series, the Company may at any time compulsorily redeem any or all of a Shareholder's Shares for any reason or for no reason upon no notice or not less than such period of prior written notice to a Shareholder as the Directors may determine.

62. Upon such compulsory redemption under these Articles being exercised by the Company against a Shareholder, such Shareholder will be entitled to receive the Redemption Price in respect of his Shares so redeemed, such Redemption Price to be paid to such Shareholder in the manner described and subject to these Articles, and from the day on which such compulsory redemption is effected shall have no other Shareholder's rights except the right to receive the Redemption Price and the right to receive any dividends declared but not yet paid.

SUSPENSION

63. The Directors may declare a suspension of (a) the determination of Net Asset Value and/or (b) the subscription for Shares and/or (c) the redemption of Shares at the option of the Shareholder (either in whole or in part) and/or (d) the purchase of Shares and/or (e) the payment of any amount to a Redeeming Shareholder in connection with the redemption of Shares, in each case for the whole or any part of any period and in such circumstances as the Directors may determine.
64. Any suspension declared pursuant to the preceding Article shall take effect at such time as the Directors shall declare and shall remain in effect until the Directors shall declare the suspension to be at an end.
65. The Directors may with respect to any Shareholder suspend the redemption rights of such Shareholder, including the right to receive the Redemption Price, if the Directors deem it necessary to do so to comply with anti-money laundering laws and regulations or any other legal requirement applicable to the Company, the Investment Manager, any other service provider to the Company or any affiliate of any of them.
66. Each declaration of a suspension by the Directors pursuant to these Articles shall be consistent with such official rules and regulations (if any) relating to the subject matter thereof as shall have been promulgated by any authority having jurisdiction over the Company as shall be in effect at the time.
67. To the extent not inconsistent with such official rules and regulations as are mentioned in the preceding Article, the determination of the Directors shall be conclusive.

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

68. Whenever the capital of the Company is divided into different Classes (and as otherwise determined by the Directors) the rights attached to any such Class may, subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Class, only be materially adversely varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than 75% of the issued Shares of the relevant Class or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the Shares of such Class by a majority of 75% of the votes cast at such a meeting. To every such separate meeting all the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company or to the proceedings thereat shall, mutatis mutandis, apply, except that the necessary quorum shall be one or more Persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third in nominal or par value amount of the issued Shares of the relevant Class (but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holders a quorum as above defined is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall form a quorum) and that, subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to the Shares of that Class, every Shareholder of the Class shall on a poll have one vote for each Share of the Class held by him. For the purposes of this Article the Directors may treat all the Classes or any two or more Classes as forming one Class if they consider that the variation or abrogation of the rights attached to such Classes proposed for consideration is the same variation or abrogation for all such relevant Classes, but in any other case shall treat them as separate Classes. The Directors may vary the rights attaching to any Class without the consent or approval of Shareholders provided that the rights will not, in the determination of the Directors, be materially adversely varied or abrogated by such action. Any modification in accordance with this Article will also be deemed to amend the terms of offer of the relevant Shares, whether set out in the Offering Memorandum, any subscription agreement or otherwise.

69. If a Shareholder is asked to consent to any proposed variation or abrogation of the rights that are attached to any class of shares and written notice of such proposed material adverse variation or abrogation is given to the Shareholder in accordance with the notice provisions of these Articles, such Shareholder shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed material adverse variation or abrogation if such Shareholder does not affirmatively object in writing to such proposed material adverse variation or abrogation within twenty (20) days (or such shorter time as may be determined by the Directors in their discretion) after such notice is received or deemed to have been received in accordance with the notice provisions of these Articles.
70. The rights conferred upon the holders of the Shares of any Class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to the Shares of that Class, be deemed to be materially adversely varied or abrogated by, inter alia, the creation, allotment or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu with or subsequent to them, the redemption or purchase of any Shares, or by the passing of any Directors' resolution to change or vary any investment objective, investment technique and strategy and/or investment policy in relation to a Class of Shares or any modification of the fees payable to any service provider to the Company.

CERTIFICATES

71. No Person shall be entitled to a certificate for any or all of his Shares, unless the Directors shall determine otherwise.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

72. The instrument of transfer of any Share shall be in any usual or common form or such other form as the Directors may determine and be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and if in respect of a nil or partly paid up Share, or if so required by the Directors, shall also be executed on behalf of the transferee, and shall be accompanied by the certificate (if any) of the Shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a Shareholder until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of the relevant Shares.
73. Subject to the terms of issue thereof, the Directors may determine to decline to register any transfer of Shares without assigning any reason therefor.
74. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine.

75. All instruments of transfer that are registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer that the Directors decline to register shall (except in any case of fraud) be returned to the Person depositing the same.
76. If it comes to the notice of the Directors that any Shares are held by a Prohibited Person the Directors may by notice in writing require the transfer of such Shares in exercise of their powers under these Articles.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

77. The legal personal representative of a deceased sole holder of a Share shall be the only Person recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share. In the case of a Share registered in the name of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor, or the legal personal representatives of the deceased holder of the Share, shall be the only Person recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share.
78. Any Person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Shareholder shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors, have the right either to be registered as a Shareholder in respect of the Share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the Share as the deceased or bankrupt Person could have made; but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the Share by the deceased or bankrupt Person before the death or bankruptcy.
79. A Person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a Shareholder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered Shareholder, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Shareholder in respect of the Share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

80. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into Shares of such Classes and amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
81. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of a larger amount than its existing Shares;
 - (b) convert all or any of its paid up Shares into stock and reconvert that stock into paid up Shares of any denomination;
 - (c) subdivide its existing Shares, or any of them into Shares of a smaller amount, provided that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced Share shall be the same as it was in case of the Share from which the reduced Share is derived; and
 - (d) cancel any Shares that, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any Person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the Shares so cancelled.

82. The Company may by Special Resolution reduce its share capital and any capital redemption reserve in any manner authorised by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

83. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene a general meeting of the Company.
84. The Directors may cancel or postpone any duly convened general meeting at any time prior to such meeting, except for general meetings requisitioned by the Shareholders in accordance with these Articles, for any reason or for no reason at any time prior to the time for holding such meeting or, if the meeting is adjourned, the time for holding such adjourned meeting. The Directors shall give Shareholders notice in writing of any cancellation or postponement. A postponement may be for a stated period of any length or indefinitely as the Directors may determine.
85. General meetings shall also be convened on the requisition in writing of any Shareholder or Shareholders entitled to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company holding at least ten percent of the paid up voting share capital of the Company deposited at the Office specifying the objects of the meeting by notice given no later than 21 days from the date of deposit of the requisition signed by the requisitionists, and if the Directors do not convene such meeting for a date not later than 45 days after the date of such deposit, the requisitionists themselves may convene the general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which general meetings may be convened by the Directors, and all reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists as a result of the failure of the Directors to convene the general meeting shall be reimbursed to them by the Company.
86. If at any time there are no Directors, any two Shareholders (or if there is only one Shareholder then that Shareholder) entitled to vote at general meetings of the Company may convene a general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which general meetings may be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

87. At least five Clear Days' notice in writing counting from the date service is deemed to take place as provided in these Articles specifying the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business, shall be given in the manner hereinafter provided or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Company by Ordinary Resolution to such Persons as are, under these Articles, entitled to receive such notices from the Company, but with the consent of all the Shareholders entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting and attend and vote thereat, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice or without notice and in such manner as those Shareholders may think fit.
88. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of a notice of a meeting by any Shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

89. All business carried out at a general meeting shall be deemed special with the exception of sanctioning a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, any report of the Directors or of the Auditors, and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors. No special business shall be transacted at any general meeting without the consent of all Shareholders entitled to receive notice of that meeting unless notice of such special business has been given in the notice convening that meeting.

90. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Shareholders is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, one or more Shareholders holding at least ten percent of the paid up voting share capital of the Company present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at that meeting shall form a quorum.
91. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the Shareholder or Shareholders present and entitled to vote shall form a quorum.
92. If the Directors wish to make this facility available for a specific general meeting or all general meetings of the Company, participation in any general meeting of the Company may be by means of a telephone or similar communication equipment by way of which all Persons participating in such meeting can communicate with each other and such participation shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at the meeting.
93. The chairman, if any, of the Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company.
94. If there is no such chairman, or if at any general meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairman, any Director or Person nominated by the Directors shall preside as chairman, failing which the Shareholders present in person or by proxy shall choose any Person present to be chairman of that meeting.
95. The chairman may adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place either:
 - (a) with the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting); or
 - (b) without the consent of such meeting if, in his sole opinion, he considers it necessary to do so to:
 - (i) secure the orderly conduct or proceedings of the meeting; or
 - (ii) give all persons present in person or by proxy and having the right to speak and / or vote at such meeting, the ability to do so, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting, or adjourned meeting, is adjourned for fourteen days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the manner provided for the original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

96. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the chairman or one or more Shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote, and unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

97. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
98. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
99. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs.

VOTES OF SHAREHOLDERS

100. Subject to any rights and restrictions for the time being attached to any Share, on a show of hands every Shareholder present in person and every Person representing a Shareholder by proxy shall, at a general meeting of the Company, each have one vote and on a poll every Shareholder and every Person representing a Shareholder by proxy shall have one vote for each Share of which he or the Person represented by proxy is the holder.
101. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register.
102. A Shareholder of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote in respect of Shares carrying the right to vote held by him, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, or other Person in the nature of a committee appointed by that court, and any such committee or other Person may vote in respect of such Shares by proxy.
103. No Shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Company unless all calls, if any, or other sums presently payable by him in respect of Shares carrying the right to vote held by him have been paid.
104. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
105. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under Seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a Shareholder.
106. An instrument appointing a proxy may be in any usual or common form or such other form as the Directors may approve.
107. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting no later than the time for holding the meeting or, if the meeting is adjourned, the time for holding such adjourned meeting.

108. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
109. A resolution in writing signed by all the Shareholders for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company (or being corporations by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

110. Any corporation which is a Shareholder or a Director may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such Person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any meeting of holders of a Class or of the Directors or of a committee of Directors, and the Person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Shareholder or Director.

DIRECTORS

111. The name(s) of the first Director(s) shall either be determined in writing by a majority (or in the case of a sole subscriber that subscriber) of, or elected at a meeting of, the subscribers of the Memorandum of Association.
112. If at any time the Company falls within the definition of "mutual fund" pursuant to the Mutual Funds Law and is not registered thereunder, a majority of investors (as defined in the Mutual Funds Law) shall be entitled to appoint and remove the Directors by written notice to the Company to that effect notwithstanding, and without prejudice to, the other provisions of these Articles providing for the appointment and removal of Directors.
113. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution appoint any Person to be a Director.
114. Subject to these Articles, a Director shall hold office until such time as he is removed from office by Ordinary Resolution.
115. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution from time to time fix the maximum and minimum number of Directors to be appointed but unless such numbers are fixed as aforesaid the minimum number of Directors shall be one and the maximum number of Directors shall be unlimited.
116. The remuneration of the Directors may be determined by the Directors or by Ordinary Resolution.
117. There shall be no shareholding qualification for Directors unless determined otherwise by Ordinary Resolution.
118. The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any Person to be a Director, either as a result of a casual vacancy or as an additional Director, subject to the maximum number (if any) imposed by Ordinary Resolution.
119. The Directors shall be entitled to be paid their travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in going to, attending and returning from meetings of the Directors, or any committee of the Directors, or general meetings of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company, or to receive such fixed allowance in respect thereof as may be determined by the Directors from time to time, or a combination partly of one such method and partly the other.

ALTERNATE DIRECTOR

120. Any Director may in writing appoint another Person to be his alternate and, save to the extent provided otherwise in the form of appointment, such alternate shall have authority to sign written resolutions on behalf of the appointing Director, but shall not be authorised to sign such written resolutions where they have been signed by the appointing Director, and to act in such Director's place at any meeting of the Directors. Every such alternate shall be entitled to attend and vote at meetings of the Directors as the alternate of the Director appointing him and where he is a Director to have a separate vote in addition to his own vote. A Director may at any time in writing revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him. Such alternate shall not be an Officer solely as a result of his appointment as an alternate other than in respect of such times as the alternate acts as a Director. The remuneration of such alternate shall be payable out of the remuneration of the Director appointing him and the proportion thereof shall be agreed between them.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

121. Subject to the Companies Law, these Articles and to any resolutions passed in a general meeting, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who may pay all expenses incurred in setting up and registering the Company and may exercise all powers of the Company. The Directors will have the power to commence in the name of the Company a winding up or any other insolvency proceedings in accordance with the Companies Law. No resolution passed by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors that would have been valid if that resolution had not been passed.
122. The Directors may from time to time appoint any Person, whether or not a Director to hold such office in the Company as the Directors may think necessary for the administration of the Company, including but not limited to, the office of president, one or more vice presidents, treasurer, assistant treasurer, manager or controller, and for such term and at such remuneration (whether by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or partly in one way and partly in another), and with such powers and duties as the Directors may think fit. Any Person so appointed by the Directors may be removed by the Directors or by the Company by Ordinary Resolution. The Directors may also appoint one or more of their number to the office of managing director upon like terms, but any such appointment shall ipso facto terminate if any managing director ceases from any cause to be a Director, or if the Company by Ordinary Resolution resolves that his tenure of office be terminated.
123. The Directors may appoint any Person to be a Secretary (and if need be an assistant Secretary or assistant Secretaries) who shall hold office for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions and with such powers as they think fit. Any Secretary or assistant Secretary so appointed by the Directors may be removed by the Directors or by the Company by Ordinary Resolution.
124. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors.
125. The Directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney (whether under Seal or under hand) or otherwise appoint any company, firm or Person or body of Persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys or authorised signatory (any such person being an "Attorney" or "Authorised Signatory", respectively) of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretion (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit, and any such power of attorney or other appointment may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of Persons dealing with any such Attorney or Authorised Signatory as the Directors may think fit, and may also authorise any such Attorney or Authorised Signatory to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretion vested in him.

126. The Directors may from time to time provide for the management of the affairs of the Company in such manner as they shall think fit and the provisions contained in the three next following Articles shall not limit the general powers conferred by this Article.
127. The Directors from time to time and at any time may establish any committees, local boards or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company and may appoint any Person to be a member of such committees or local boards and may appoint any managers or agents of the Company and may fix the remuneration of any such Person.
128. The Directors from time to time and at any time may delegate to any such committee, local board, manager or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors and may authorise the members for the time being of any such local board, or any of them to fill any vacancies therein and to act notwithstanding vacancies and any such appointment or delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit and the Directors may at any time remove any Person so appointed and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no Person dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.
129. Any such delegates as aforesaid may be authorised by the Directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretion for the time being vested in them.
130. The Directors may agree with a Shareholder to waive or modify the terms applicable to such Shareholder's subscription for Shares without obtaining the consent of any other Shareholder; provided that such waiver or modification does not amount to a variation or abrogation of the rights attaching to the Shares of such other Shareholders.

BORROWING POWERS OF DIRECTORS

131. The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital or any part thereof, or to otherwise provide for a security interest to be taken in such undertaking, property or uncalled capital, and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other Investments whenever money is borrowed or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

THE SEAL

132. The Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Directors provided always that such authority may be given prior to or after the affixing of the Seal and if given after may be in general form confirming a number of affixings of the Seal. The Seal shall be affixed in the presence of a Director or a Secretary (or an assistant Secretary) or in the presence of any one or more Persons as the Directors may appoint for the purpose and every Person as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is so affixed in their presence.

133.
